

Schedule is subject to change throughout the season, however rehearsal dates and times will most likely stay the same. Students are expected to attend all rehearsals, but should e-mail the director at MASDGuarddirector@gmail.com three days prior to missing a rehearsal. The only acceptable excuse for missing a rehearsal is an excused absence from school. Work schedules, transportation issues, etc are not acceptable reasons for missing rehearsals. Students involved in other activities are expected to split time equally between other activities and winter guard. Students with too many absences may have a reduced role in the winter guard, even if those absences are excused.
